Dolly Douches Bag

I am so happy to see Lady "A" is not so loney anymore, now that the lost love os back from the South. Too bad that there is still a few miles seperating you.

The Magpies sure are flying around the club now, they sure are squaking loud and clear. The board even hears her cries...poor dears.

By now the needles should be flying like crazy, everyone of us Queens are sewing up a storm of chiffon and sequins. I wonder who is going to be the grandest Lady at the Ball.

It sure isnice to get back together again isn't you tall old red head.

A nice trip is coming up for the German Princess, to Van. wasn't it?

What happened to our little ticket lady, at the Bash, she just didn't show up to sell. Were you "held up" at home.

Dolly isall dumped out for now, so be careful, till next time.
